

I believe the wording of the new FCC rule regarding broadcast ownership should be released prior to the vote. The vote should be delayed and public hearings held prior to the vote. Sufficient notice should be given prior to hearings so that the public has time to develop an informed opinion and to properly prepare their comments.

I am shocked and disturbed by the unusual, close-door procedures the FCC is using in regard to this vote.